SUBJECT: FORD-GAMBIT PROJECT.

1. Reference: Berlin cable No. 1473 of 11 January 1947.
2. Source saw Captain SKURIN on Friday, 10 January 1947, at their regularly scheduled weekly meeting. SKURIN's first statement was the reproach that source had not seen BLUM on Tuesday, as he had promised to do.

NOTE: Source actually visited BLUM on Monday, the day before he had told SKURIN he would go. The conclusion is that BLUM's house has been under surveillance. It is assumed, however, that this surveillance was only on the day source had promised to make his visit, and in all probability to check on his reliability and truthfulness. This supposition is supported by the fact that SKURIN made no reference to the visit having taken place earlier.
